- Summer extended school year: Students that would benefit (IEPs) from reading (109) & math (68) programs.
- District webpage (school board, board documents, superintendent's report) that will detail the work that went into the summer for the district eg. Humanities, STEAM, district technology etc.
- Facility Updates/Refurbishments also available on school board website.
- Scribner refinished floors, security window for vestibule
- Priorities for the year- Welcoming and affirming environment, high expectations and rigorous instructions, inclusive curriculum, ongoing professional learning.
- Long-range, research-driven, equity plan (5 year) was developed and detailed - affirming all students and helping all students to feel safe and achieve the best that they can do.
- Former Scribner parent :) and board member for 11 years.

Teacher's Report

Cathy Stephens

7:25 pm

Kristin Henderson

- Lots of new staff- everyone getting acclimated to new faces and spaces.
- Fall Fest was great- feedback from teachers: Could they order some shirts from fall fest?
- (Jessica) Could we bring back the spirit wear for Spring fest potentially?

PAB Report

Nicole Felts

7:30 pm

- Each PTA gets a board member and we get Mark!
- Emily Roberts talked about successful Homecoming.
- Construction updates/Facilities updates
- "Elevate" approved contract for strength training at the high school level.
- Dr. Putnam has updated the code of conduct to be rolled out this year.
 - Eg. From 1976 if a student was caught smoking it's an automatic 20 week suspension
 - Vs. now- there will be a tiered process for smoking/vaping.
 - (Scott) Moving from a punitive and reactive state of mind to an asset-based, proactive state of mind. Tying in with district priorities
- Equity Long Range Plan shared.
- First day felt normal for the first time in forever.
- Feature film Oct 18, 7:00 pm at PHS- Screenagers movie on screen time and the effects on substance abuse. Will likely be communicated through Nancy Bradstreet.
